PRESIDENT DAVIS AT THE BATTLE OF MANASSAS.

[From E. A. Pollard's Life of Jefferson Davis.]

* * * In the morning of the eventful day, President Davis had left Richmond for the field of battle. What carried him there was never explained; it was not—as President Lincoln and other civil magistrates often did—to visit a field already decided, and to review or meditate upon it; there was, indeed, a carping commentary in Richmond that President Davis should have been present at Manassas on that day, and should have left his office at the Capitol to thrust himself into a scene of actual battle, and, perhaps, to interfere with the Confederate commanders. It was known only to those very intimate with him that he had left Richmond that morning to command, in person, the army; and hence the curious mistake which appeared in all the papers of the South next day, and which the agents of the Associated Press had predicated on what had been whispered to him of the instructions of Mr. Davis, that "the President commanded the centre" in the action of the day. Mr. Davis did not command the centre; he arrived too late for the battle, and only when the enemy was flying. It is said that he never forgave General Beauregard for the contretemps, in which his vanity was disappointed, and that in this circumstance originated his first disaffection towards that commander, which was afterwards carried to every extremity of enraged persecution. However this may be, it is certain that General Beauregard had never noticed the President of the time when he proposed to give battle; he was under no obligation to do so, and, perhaps, he suspected the intention of Mr. Davis to lead his army into action; all he was compelled to do was to apply to the President for authority for the army corps of General Johnson to join him, and it is positively known that this was the only intimation Mr. Davis had that a battle was to be delivered. He arrived too late to take part in it, or to gather the military laurel of which he had dreamed the night before. But he did not arrive too late to make some display of personal heroism.

He rode from the cars towards the sublime scene in which the battle had culminated and broken on the horizon of evening. A cloud of smoke and dust had lifted from the plain and hung sullenly in the sky; there was the dis ant clamor of battle; the strokes of artillery, slow and ponderous, smote the air; black masses of men, wavering, undistinguishable, bounded the strained vision and perplexed it. It was impossible to tell, from a distance, which army had won the day, or what flags rode in the mixed scene. The President galloped forward to learn the state of the field.—No one could tell him and the roar and confusion. As he rode swiftly through a stream of stragglers, it seemed as if he was in the midst of a retreat, breasting its hot and dusty current. At that moment his brother, Joseph Davis, galloped to his side and said, "The day is lost; let us go no further." "No," said the President, "if the army is defeated, so much the greater reason that I should be with my brave men and their fate." They were the words of a personal courage which nothing in his life ever turned or daunted; and they were, perhaps, remembered when a distinguished son of Virginia, recently reviewing the leader of "the Lost Cause," declared briefly that he was a man who had had many favorable chances, and who had attained greatness only from comparison with a race of political pigmies in Mississippi and the Southwest, and who, with all the advantages of fortune, had but two virtues—a devoted espousal of his cause and "indomitable pluck."

The scene changes from the grandeur and tumult of battle. The night has fallen, and the stars have risen above the combs of the Blue Ridge, now a dusky boundary of the wide plain. Jackson has gone to his tent, gloomy and reluctant, muttering, "It is not my business to advise the Commander-in-Chief to pursue." Before another tent, larger and more pretentious, above which float in the night air the emblems of the Southern Confederacy, a quiet, elderly gentleman is seated, clad in simple gray, his brows shaded by a felt hat of light color and ample dimensions, his mouth garnished with a fragrant cigar, evidently a person taking his ease, and indulging a little complacency. This man is Jefferson Davis. There is a group of laced officers around him; General Beauregard sits among them, and General Johnston comes and goes, sharing the light and desultory conversation and anon retiring to perform some duty. Not a man speaks of pursuit of the enemy; not one has conceived it. They speak of some incidents of the field; Mr. Davis inquires of some of his Mississippi friends; the conversation becomes general, of politics, of persons in Washington, of anything else but the fugitive enemy; there is an abandonment in the scene, and every one is disposed to be well pleased and sociable. A few miles further from this light recreation, there are great, broken masses of men in mad retreat, the hum of their flight rises in the black hollowness of the night, panting struggling, pressing on in inextricable disorder, and yet with nothing at their heels but their own terrors. This is the Federal Army, the Grand Army. It flies through the night, it makes its escape, it is already shivering on the banks of the Potomac; while Jefferson Davis picturesquely smokes his cigar, strokes his neuralgic parts, and tells an edotes at the door of Gen. Beauregard's tent.

About a week ago a trunk was received at one of the express offices in Buffalo marked to be called for. Owing to the fact that a very disagreeable smell was emitted from the box, and no one having called for it, it was opened on Monday and found to contain the body of a woman, badly mutilated. Just above the heart a stab was discovered. Efforts are being made to solve the mystery.

Visitors to General Grant will hereafter only be admitted by card, or otherwise, from 10 to 12 o'clock each day. This rule is rendered necessary in order to afford time to transact business. This rule prohibits Senators and members, as well as office seekers.

A new hand in a Boston shop made terribly rough work in shaving a customer.—When the haggling ended, the victim asked: "Did you ever shave anybody before?" "Yes, sir." "Ah! Did the man live?"

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

CHRISTIAN W. BUCK.....President.
ABRAM POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary
DANIEL AYRES, M. D. LL.D. ..Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. ST. JOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Policies Insured in '67,	15,251
Am't insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. EX. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.
Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the heaviest linen. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

THE UNIVERSITY.

It is published, that the "reconstruction" of the University of North Carolina has been advanced far enough to allow its Trustees and Faculty to invite the young men of our country to resort to its instructions on the 3d of March next. The question now is, will these young men accept this invitation? We answer promptly and decidedly and say, we believe they will not.—As long as the University is under its present management, it will be no fit place for education, for the following, besides other reasons.

The citizens of Chapel Hill, our much esteemed good friends, addressed us a letter sometime ago, asking that we would forbear strictures and criticism, upon the new Professors of the University. We did forbear, we have forborne. We have offered, if certain Trustees of the University would call their children from Northern schools to which they are going, we would send two boys to the University. Our proposition rests with no favor in the eyes of the Trustees. Since our proposition was publicly made, we have heard of Professor McIver's saying he "must accept the call to the University, because his party needs his services, and gratitude demands that he obey the call."

The Trustees having elected such a corps of Professors, as that even they themselves are unwilling should teach their children—how can they look for others to patronize the institution? Come, Trustees, show your faith by your works, bring your sons home and put them at the University.

It is all in vain to attempt to conciliate or act in concert with Holden and his minions, even in matters of education and literature. They pollute whatsoever they touch; they destroy whatsoever they attempt to improve.

If they will not allow laboring men to work on their Radical Railroad, they would hardly allow boys in peace to study at their Radical College:

1. The University is now, and is likely to remain, a part of the political machinery of the State. Its aim will be to graduate political partisans. Its Trustees and its Professors are to secure their places, as our Judges receive theirs, by writing political letters and making partisan stump speeches. Our University will be used with our Railroads and our Penitentiary, to furnish rewards for zeal in electioneering. Twelve years ago, "Governor" Holden and his fellow secessionists drove Prof. Hedrick from the University because he was a Republican. Now, Gov. Holden makes his associates drive away Prof. Hedrick's colleagues because they are not Republicans. While the University was managed by the best men in North Carolina, it knew no parties in politics or in religion. Now, it is to know none but Radicals either in its Trusteeships or its Professorships.

2. The Trustees of the University have shown themselves to be lawless in action, and tyrannical in temper. The suspension of the University last Summer was without warrant, other than might and spite. The Constitution directs the Board of Education to select Trustees for the University. These Trustees are required to meet and select three of their own number who, with the Board of Education and the President of the University are to constitute an Executive Committee. When the Trustees are thus organized, they become qualified to take care of the University. Instead of doing what it was told to do, in the prescribed order, the Board of Education first suspended the Faculty of the University from the work committed to their care. They had just as much right, and no more, to suspend Dr. Hubbard from his labors for the Episcopal Church, at Chapel Hill, as they had for suspending him from lecturing on Horace and Cicero in the University.—The Board of Education, according to our Constitution, has nothing to do with our University except as a part of the Executive Committee of the Trustees of the University. But, when Gov. Holden, Pilgrim Ashley & Co., suspended the University, there were according to their theory, no Trustees. The Faculty displaced, ought to sue the Trustees for their salaries, and the Board of Education ought to be impeached for malfeasance in office. Besides this lawlessness, the Board of Education did as they pleased, constitutionally or unconstitutionally, or extra constitutionally, it mattered not to them, in another of their actions. And in this they insulted large and intelligent portions of our community. The Constitution required this Board to select one Trustee for each county; the evident intent of the requirement, being, that the Trustee for a county should be from that county. Yet, the Board treated Alleghany county as if no man in it could spell as well as "Cebe Harris;" and Tyrrell county, as if no one of its citizens had as stainless a character as "Billy Henderson." It seems that the University can not get on without the services of both Mr. Lassiter and Mr. Cantwell. So, while Mr. Cantwell hails from Granville county, he is ascribed to some county which is supposed to have neither gentlemen nor "kiddees."

When the Trustees came together, they seemed afraid to stand up for their own rights and rebuke this gross usurpation of their authority. On the contrary, they imitated the example set before them. They accepted resignations made, but declined by their predecessors, and, without one word of warning, turned out of their chairs. Professors who had grown gray in their service of the University,—a service which ended by leaving them poor in matters pecuniary, but rich in matters intellectual,—a poverty and a wealth alike most honorable to them. The University of North Carolina was established "to promote all useful learning," and to cultivate the "love of virtue, liberty and science." Arbitrary and tyrannical conduct in its Trustees ought not to assure our young men of this promotion or of this civilization.

3. The new Faculty have been selected in a clandestine manner. No "ring," anxious to secure a grab at monies for their own folks, ever worked more secretly than did the Executive Committee in appointing the present President and Professors of the University. Heretofore, when such men as Judge Gaston, and Judge Ruffin and Judge Battle voted for Professors at the University, they proclaimed their intentions widely, so as to secure competition from all parts of our country. The present Trustees, at their meeting last Summer, promised those who had sons and friends to educate, that only a man "of national reputation" should be chosen President. Last Fall, a resolution of the Trustees, in their annual meeting, introduced by Judge Pearson and amended by Judge Settle, directed the Executive Committee to ascertain whether instructions might not be continued at the University on certain conditions, and if this plan failed to proceed to the selection of a Faculty after due advertisement of the time and place of this selection. But, disregarding the promise of last Summer, without any proper trial of the scheme in the Pearson-Settle resolution, and wilfully disobeying the command of the Trustees, the Executive Committee proceeded at once to the selection of Professors. Of course, under such circumstances, only names of the faithful, who were in the secret, would be before them. Not one of the members of the late Faculty suspected that the Executive Committee would act in this manner. They had been trained themselves, and they had trained their pupils by an entirely different standard of consciousness. To them, the fulfilment of a promise and obedience to lawful commands were of the first importance. So, the Executive Committee dexterously avoided the trouble of comparing those who were candidates for their favors with others who might have been candidates.—And there would have been other candidates, had they or their friends seen or heard of the advertisement required by the Trustees. Intelligent and life-long friends of the University, were enquiring on the streets of Raleigh concerning the time and place of the election of a Faculty at the very time when "the ring" was secretly setting at defiance both promises and commands.

4. The Faculty of the University is, as well as we can judge, unable to promote all useful learning. Its members have not obtained their places because of the love of virtue, liberty and science, and they are not likely to be zealous in its cause. A resolution was passed by the Trustees at their meeting last November, which promised to our freedmen an institution equal in all respects to the University of North Carolina. If this resolution is anything more than a toss to Cerberus, any one who knows that they only can be educated who are educable, knows also, that this resolution cannot be obeyed, this side of our great-great-grandchildren, unless the instruction and discipline at the University be toned down to suit the mental condition of our lately emancipated slaves. It seems that this toning down has been inaugurated.

Of Mr. Martling, very few in North Carolina know anything. It has been said that but few of the ring know of him. Never theless, his log was rolled up. Of Mr. Brewer, besides the clumsy recommendation ascribed to President Woolsey, there seems to have been but little said, except by the negro children around Raleigh.

Mr. Pool has been longer and better known in North Carolina. The President promised to us, was to be of a "National reputation." The President given us, was only of the National service. A publican is not necessarily a public man. The college mates and colleagues of Mr. Pool, are not few nor unknown. But we have not seen or heard of one who says that he is, or ever has been, fit to be President of the University of North Carolina. His politics only, can have recommended him to that position, and that to the extreme wing of his party, only. Dr. Phillips, for forty years the head of the department in which Mr. Pool taught, used to say: "Mr. Pool has not grown one inch since he graduated." Mr. Pool's colleagues will be curious to see how he who could not control one class, will succeed in managing four. We have heard of Mr. Pool's pupils saying he was too lazy to teach anything but ———. It was frequently said, that the promise to appoint no one as President but a man of national reputation, was intended by the Trustees to kill off such men as Judge Olds, Judge Cantwell, Mr. Pool, &c. &c. Nevertheless, the ring has managed to drop Mr. Pool into the boots of Dr. Caldwell and Governor Swain—that he may have a chance to peep over their tops, while he stumbles about in them and tries to teach what he calls "Christian and Moral Science"—that is, as the title implies, the whole of what is held by knowledge, and the whole of what is held by faith—every truth that has been discovered and every truth that has been revealed. Judging by what we know, we confidently say, that the young men of North Carolina cannot get, at its University, the education they need. For the University is now under the control of men, who, either as Trustees or as Faculty, will not, or can not, do what they ought to do, what they promise to do, or what they are commanded to do. James II never treated the Universities of Oxford, or of Cambridge, more arbitrarily, more unjustly or more selfishly. Therefore, we say aloud, To your tents, Oh! Israel—we have no lot nor share in this child of Radicalism.

We call upon the Trustees to nurse their own Radical baby. If you won't allow a Conservative to work on your Radical Railroad, how could you allow a Conservative boy to live in peace at your Radical University.

Notice of one day having been previously given of this resolution, it was put to a vote and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Mendenhall, the rules were suspended, and the resolution authorizing the sale of the Public School Fund, interest in the Wilmington and Manchester and the Wilmington and Weldon Railroads was taken up.

On the adoption of the resolution, the yeas and nays being called, resulted in the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Ames, Ashworth, Blair, Carey, colored, Cawthorn, colored, Cherry, colored, Crawford, colored, Downing, Estes Forkner, colored, Foster, Franklin, French, Gahagan, Graham, Harris of Wake, colored, Hendricks, Hersey, Hudgings, colored, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Moore, Leary, colored, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, colored, McCanless, McMillan, Mendenhall, Morris, colored, Parker, Pearson, Price, colored, Reynolds, colored, Siegrist, Simonds, Snipes, Stilley, Vestal, Vest, White and Williamson, colored.

NAYS.—Messrs. Allison, Banner, Boddie, Cagon, Clayton, of Transylvania, Davidson, Farrow, Ferebee, Gibson, Green, Grier, Hicks, High, Hinnant, Hodnett, Kelly, of Davie, Long, of Chatham, Moore, Pain er, Pollitt, Renfrow, Robinson, Shaver, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Sweat, colored, Welch and Wilson.

On motion of Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, the rules were suspended, and the Senate bill No 65, allowing all citizens who can prove a good moral character and pay the license tax, to practice law, was taken up, when,

Mr. Justice took the floor, and argued for some time in support of the measure.

Mr. Downing said he would never vote for the bill in its present shape. He thought that if a Judge of the Superior Court was to issue the license, that the candidate should be examined as to his knowledge of the profession which he intended to practice, &c.

After some further debate, Mr. Downing offered an amendment which requires the applicant "to be found as possessing a competent law knowledge before license shall be granted."

Mr. Pou would support the bill without any amendment.

Mr. Stilley would support the bill that would give the Treasury an increased revenue. He did not think the passage of the bill would at all burden the profession, &c.

Mr. Vest thought the amendment would defeat the purposes of the bill, therefore he hoped it would be voted down.

The question recurring upon Mr. Downing's amendment, it was rejected.

The yeas and nays being called on the passage of the bill on its second reading, resulted yeas 58, nays 15.

On motion, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Ferebee, the rules were suspended and the bill amending the Charter of the town of Lenoir, Caldwell County, was taken up and passed its several readings, under a suspension of the rules.

CALENDAR.

Bill No 314, allowing the Commissioners of Rutherfordton to levy taxes for certain purposes, was taken up and passed its third reading by a vote of yeas 68, nays 0.

The Chair announced the hour for the special order, to wit: Bill to be entitled an Act to raise Revenue.

After amending one or two sections of the bill, the House adjourned until 7½ o'clock this evening, pending the consideration of Section 21, Schedule B.

[The bill will be published in full, whenever perfected.]

BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION.

The poet has truly said:

"A wife's a feather, a chief's a rod;
An honest man's the noblest work of God."

We often recall these words to mind, now that corruption pervades every department of our Government, both State and National, and in fact has become such a common thing.

Honesty, in the phrase of the day, has played out—become a thing of the past, like Lassiter's "kiddee letter." Honesty is an old fogy idea, that ought not to impede the onward march of American civilization.

"Thou shalt not steal" is a commandment which the enlightened rulers of the day say does not apply to the times, nor was ever intended for this stage of morality and progress.

Once there was a "higher law" framed by Butler and Boutwell, and enforced by Congress, the Bureau and State Legislatures, and its disciples are the carpet-baggers, revenue officers, and the poor, deluded scalawags. "It is not right," proclaims the Generals of Radicalism, "that an honest Radical should want for anything, while there is money about."

"What!" exclaims the Penitentiary Ring, "pay only 65 cents an acre for land, when the State can afford at least $12.00, and thus make us a handsome little profit."

"What! pay only $3 a cord for wood, when by giving $4 for it, we make $1 clear on the cord, and it is all the same to the State!" exclaims the man that furnishes the Lunatic Asylum with wood.

And we fancy we hear a grand chorus of nasal twanged voices, whining thusly: "What! walk on carpet bought by such a fellow as Worth! Why, it would taint our loyalty! No—we can buy new Brussels, and then we can take the old carpets for our bed rooms—and the scraps we can sell or use for rags and the like, and it is all the same to the State.

And thus it is—State money is lavished on "loft men;"—State property conveyed to the private uses of "loft men;"—Railroad schemes divided by "loft men" and bonds issued, that piles may be made for "loft men" to steal from;—money is entrusted to "loft hands" for the public good, that "loft hearts" may be gladdened;—and even new carpets are placed on office floors that "loft men" may fall heirs to old ones! It is like a great grab game—all stealing, pilfering, robbing and plundering the money and property of the State. They steal from a scrap of carpet, up to $100,000.

The rule of the party is, "while you've got your hand in the Treasury, help yourself, and don't be bashful! Every man take care of himself, and the devil catch the hindmost!"

The whole government is like a rotten carcass, swarming with the maggots of corruption—and the State Government of North Carolina, already stinks in the nostrils of the people.

But how could it be otherwise, when it is filled with Holden and his staff, the Ashleys, Billy Hendrickson, Tourgee, Menninger and Company. CATO.

No More Small Pox has been discovered in the city, and we congratulate ourselves on being free from the existence of a single case. Those afflicted and who were conveyed to the city hospital have all recovered some days since, and the hospital has been thoughly renovated.—Wilmington Journal.

Been at Work.—We learn the most of the farmers through this section have taken advantage of the splendid weather which January afforded, and prepared their lands for this year's crop. It is the intention of this class of our people to put in their biggest licks this year.—Roanoke News.

We refrain from publishing the name of the parties, because we do not think it advisable to publish one's private business, but will state although the party had not been insured quite five months, yet received a 50 per cent. dividend on $45 on the premium paid. The dividends of this Company have been larger than those of any other, averaging over 50 per cent. annually, from the beginning and the present dividend (Feb 1st, 1869,) exceeds the average. On this basis the annual dividend the Directors have, besides declaring a 43 per cent. dividend upon the premium paid, declared a per centage dividend on the surplus reserve arising from interest, which increases the policy holder's dividend annually, and on some policies pays over 70 per cent. this year. They have also adopted a reduced cost premium table with immediate annual dividends.

This company is purely mutual; there are no Stockholders to absorb its earnings. It offers abundant security in a large accumulated fund of over TWENTY-THREE MILLIONS DOLLARS, derived alone from its business, and has $154 assets, securely invested for every $100 of its liabilities. Its plans of business comprise all the desirable forms of insurance.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not formed by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on humanity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes and Ears, and other forms of disease caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abscess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the wonderful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose females of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Constitutional persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with its undisputed character of the alcoholic ferment, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with the private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as its trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their names, that the professions so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have prevented the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements pirated, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a variety of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has procured, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be universally depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears its name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity, and he casts upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest genuine article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DAVID L. MOTT, M. D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

26 PEARL STREET, NEW YORK, Nov 21, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

NEW YORK, 59 CEDAR STREET, November 26, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnapps," which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse, and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification; that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.

Respectfully,
FRED. F. MAYER, Chemist.

NEW YORK, Tuesday, May 1.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq.:—

DEAR SIR:—The want of pure Wines and Liquors for medical purposes has been long felt by the profession, and thousands of lives have been sacrificed by the use of adulterated articles. Delirium tremens, and other diseases of the brain and nerves, so rife in this country, are very rare in Europe, owing, in a great degree, to the difference in the purity of the spirits sold.

We have tested the several articles imported and sold by you, including your Gin, which you sell under the name of Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, which we consider justly entitled to the high reputation it has acquired in this country; and from your long experience as a foreign importer, your Bottled Wines and Liquors should meet with the same demand.

We would recommend you to appo

This Bone Ash is nothing more nor less than bones and the flesh of cattle reduced to ashes. In South America, cattle are valued only for their skins and tallow—the remaining portion, being converted into a a fertilizer, called Bone Ash, which makes one of the best manures, and cheapest, to be had. THE CITY LAST SABBATH.—Seldom have we witnessed a more beautiful day in the month of February, than was Sabbath last, the 7th inst. Not a cloud was to be seen; the gentle breeze from the South, rendered the atmosphere decidedly spring-like, and at an early hour, the various Church bells, sent forth their melodious notes, and in obedience to their summons, the maiden, the young men, the heads of family, all, and every one, attired in their "Sunday clothes," were seen winding their way to the Church of their faith. On reaching Capitol square, the neutral ground between the different Churches, we halted, and asked ourself the question, of what faith, to-day, oh, local? A moment thus spent, we decided to repair to the Methodist E. Church, and thither we went. This place of worship, plain and unpretentious, is situated West of the Baptist Church, two squares. We found the congregation assembled and assembling, and the choir singing one of those beautiful preliminary hymns, so well suited to the day set apart for public worship. The Rev. Mr. Hudson, pastor, was in his place, and read, for his morning's lesson, one of those rich psalms of praise, peculiar only to David.

The subject of the morning's discourse was, "man's relation to God"—the same as that of a child to its father—God, the father of us all—this earth his great plantation, which he hath well supplied with all the comforts necessary for our wants, &c. The subject was well handled, and the arguments uttered with an impressiveness that carried conviction to the hearer, that the speaker's heart was in his discourse.

We learn that the Rev. Mr. Atkinson at the Presbyterian Church, also delivered a most impressive discourse on future punishments and rewards.

The Rev. Mr. Pritchard's Church was, also, we are informed, well attended; and at night, after a very interesting sermon, the ordinance of baptism was administered to a number of recent converts.

At Christ's Church, Episcopal, the usual interesting services were had,—the Rev. Dr. Mason, officiating.

The pulpit of the Chapel, in the Eastern Ward, was filled by the Rev. W. E. Pell.

We have, in our city, four colored Churches, with an attendance of about 800; distributed nearly equal.

Now, among this multitude of worshippers, there certainly must be, and we verily believe are, many Christians; if it were not so, then we should conclude that custom and fashion are great obstacles in the way of man's salvation. But, it is otherwise; and we will not be called egotistical, if we say, that Raleigh, for its population, is one of the most moral places in the South, and that the Sabbath is as universally observed here, as God's day—a day of rest, and a day of prayer,—as it is any where.

If any thing happened to mar the pleasures of the day, it is attributed to the very impolite manner with which some youngsters gather about the different Church doors, and stare at the young ladies as they approach and enter the sanctuary. We have been requested to notice this breach of good behavior.

SQUABBLE FOR A CHURCH EDIFICE.—The wooden house, known as the old Baptist Church, in the Eastern Ward, has become a subject of dispute, as to owuership. A representative of the Christian Church, has applied to the Legislature for an act throwing the title into their hands. We learn that a member of the Baptist denomination intends to contest the right, and set up an old claim. The history of this old house, is but little known. It formerly stood outside of the Grove to the East, and was known as the Glendening meeting house.—By consent of the Legislature the followers of Glendening—Missionary Baptist,—placed it where it now stands, and occupied it as a place of worship, for many years. A split in the Church, threw it into the hands of the Christians, who were the last to use it as a house of worship.

FIRE IN HILLSBORO.'—Yesterday morning about 4 o'clock, the store-house of H. N. Brown, Esq., one of the leading merchants in the town of Hillsboro', was discovered to be on fire, by Maj. Graham, who was up, waiting the arrival of the train from the West. The timely discovery resulted in the successful extinguishment of the flames before very much damage was done.

Our young friend, Jock Roulhac, formerly of this City, and a son of the late J. B. G. Roulhac, we are pleased to learn, is doing business with Herbert & Harrison, Commission Merchants, Baltimore. Jock is a business man, and our word for it, a clever fellow; and in his new position, will give entire satisfaction to all who trade through him.

THE SCAMP.—A man calling himself Benjamin E. Green, hailing from Iredell county, hired himself to Dr. S. J. Gilmer, of Rocky River, and after remaining a few days, forged an order on him, which was cashed by Mr. Kinly, Agent of the Harrisburg depot, last Sunday when the forger stoped. He is about twenty two years of age, and wore a suit of blue homespun clothes.—Charlotte Times.

PESTERED TO DEATH.

It is said that Gen. Grant, President elect, is beset on every side with applications for office—on the streets, in the Railroad cars, at home, everywhere, he is button holed, and reminded of some important service which the applicant rendered during the campaign. His patience is being well tried, and his reticence in all cases, has become alarmingly provoking. He shows some wisdom, and unusual discretion, in keeping his own secrets—the companion of his bosom, Mrs. G., declares that the General tells her nothing of his future, and how can the barbarians of the outside world expect to find out more.

Among the numberless hungry wolves who track him through the country, the N. Y. News says of his brother-in law, Gen. Dent, "that he follows Grant sharply in his peregrinations, and occasions the President elect considerable annoyance by the too free use of his tongue. Dent is a good-natured fellow, with but a small quantity of brains, and is exceedingly garrulous. He is the first to stand the shock of the charge of office seekers, who always secure his good offices with Grant, preliminary to being ushered into "the presence" itself. Dent is always obliging, and, of course, "will speak to the General about the matter at once."—In this manner he frequently annoys Grant; and should the latter die during his terms at office, let

"Died of too much brother-in-law,"

be inscribed on "the marble shaft that lifts its head his deeds to tell."

The army around Richmond gave the General no trouble, compared to the great army of hungry office seekers who will gather around him during the next three months.

THE UNIVERSITY RAIL ROAD—PRESIDENT ELECTED—SPEAKER JOSEPH ABSENT FROM HIS POSITION IN THE HOUSE, &c.

The Board of Directors of the University Railroad, met in Chapel Hill last Friday, and proceeded to the election of a President in the person of Mr. Thompson, of Chapel Hill.

Joseph Wm. Holden, Speaker of the House of Representatives, was we learn, present, and took part in the deliberations—and of course absent from his duties as Speaker of the House. Another of the family—a relative of the Governor—is also in the directory. The "hull" family are being provided for.

STATE INDEPENDENCE.

In the Senate of the United States Thursday, the proposed amendment to the constitution providing for negro suffrage being under discussion, Mr. Ferry from Connecticut, referring to a remark of his colleague Mr. Dixon that if the amendment were adopted "Connecticut would cease to be an independent State," said "he had heard that cry before and during the war from the rebels of the South and the treasonable democracy of Connecticut, but the loyal people of the State had trampled it down."

Thereupon Mr. Dixon asked him if he denied that the State of Connecticut is an independent State?

Mr. Ferry—I do; most emphatically.

Mr. Dixon—Let us see. The state of Connecticut provides in her State constitution that her electors, before voting; shall take such oath as shall be prescribed by law; and part of the oath prescribed is in these words: "You A. B. do solemnly swear that you will be true and faithful to the State of Connecticut, and the constitution and government thereof, as a free and Independent State." I took that oath, and the Senator took it, but he seems to have forgotten it.

Mr. Sumner—What is the date of that constitution?

Mr. Dixon—1818. What did my colleague mean when he swore that Connecticut is "a free and independent State?"

Mr. Dixon having cornered his colleague completely, then turned to the great Sumner, whose surprise had been indicated by his question, and showed him what was thought of the subject in Massachusetts, in the earlier and better days of that Commonwealth, by reading from its first constitution as a State the following words:

"The people of this Commonwealth have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves as a free, sovereign, and independent State."

Curious reading this, isn't it?

THE GREAT EXCURSION.—The most extraordinary railroad event of this railroad age is in preparation—the magnificent transcontinental excursion which, in the coming month of July, is to open the Pacific Railway route from one ocean to the other. Its managers will make their own announcements in good time, and former occasions are in proof how well they understand their business. It will be the world's great representative gathering, that will meet in the heart of the continent to see the last rail spiked home. From this side the party will consist of one thousand guests, in a superb train of forty five cars, finished expressly for this occasion. Dr. Durant will, we learn, commence the excursion proper at Omaha, leaving it to guests from all over the country to reach that point by their own choice of routes. At the head of the list of invited guests will be President Grant and his Cabinet. There will also be delegations of our foreign cousins from over the water. It will be worth something to see the grand gathering at Chicago, and the transit through this city. We learn that the Pullman company are building several splendid sleeping and commissary cars for the call to be made on these facilities. Altogether it will be an affair in American Railroad annals unlikely ever to be surpassed, since no possible achievement of equal magnitude waits to be performed. Other routes to the Pacific are to be created, but this is the first.—Chicago Republican.

Jeff. Davis' appearance at the restaurant of the Freres Provenceaux in Paris, on the 5th of January, created a great sensation. The attention which he attracted seemed to be disagreeable to him, for he did not finish his cup of coffee, but left the room very abruptly. very few of the Southern residents of Paris, it is said, took any notice of his arrival in that city. The semi-official papers flattered him assiduously. The Patrie called him "His Excellency, President Davis," but was ordered to address him only as "M. Jefferson Davis." His arrival in Paris exposed the fraud committed by several extensive dealers in card photographs, who sold, as portraits of Jeff. Davis, photographs of several obscure Southern politicians, which they had received from New York.

STATE NEWS.

A CASE OF LUNACY.—A crazy woman, named Julia Mosely, was placed in the guard house for safe keeping yesterday and her removal from thence to the jail sought to be effected. The woman is evidently a patient for the Lunatic Asylum and should be sent there. Her derangement is very violent, and in turn she threatened and violently assailed her sister and brother-in-law with whom she lived and the policeman who took her to the guard house. It was dangerous to any one to approach her, and her strength seemed wonderful. Three were barely sufficient to hold her.—Wil. Journal.

A little daughter of Mrs. Ashecraft, we are informed by Dr. Treadgill, who attended her, was burned to death recently. The Doctor says the children (two girls and their brother) were in a garden where there was dry straw, the little brother set fire to this, and the sister attempted to run through it, took fire, and was so horribly burned as to be beyond medical aid.—Wadesboro Argus.

We learned at Shoe Heel, Robeson county, that a child of Mr. Washington McArn, living near that place, came to its death in a distressing manner, a few days ago. It seems it was playing near the door, when it accidently fell out into a tub of hot water and was scalded to death. The stricken parents have our heartfelt condolence in their deep grief.—Wadesboro Argus.

The Rev. Peter Howell, a street preacher, who traveled through this State some twenty years ago, preaching in the streets and market houses, or wherever he could raise a congregation, is now holding forth at Danville, Va. His peculiarity of dress and the enormous length of his hair and beard, together with the spirit with which he enunciated the truths of the gospel, made him then both an object of curiosity and interest. He is still traveling around from place to place, though now very old.

IMPROVING.—It is with much pleasure that we announce good news from the sufferers, and especially from Capt. Rankin whose condition has been so critical as to pale the cheeks and dim the eyes of his watchful relatives, while inquiring and attentive friends have been startled with grave fears, springing from each unfavorable change in his symptoms. Up to a late hour last afternoon, he was improving, and it is hoped that a few days will pronounce his recovery certain though distant.—Wil. Journal.

Robeson county is overwhelmed with a set of desperadoes, rivalling in rapacity and bloodthirstiness, the "Murrell clan" of old. Scarcely a week passes without some desperate robbery, or frightful murder transpires. Peaceable families dread the approach of night, not knowing but their own hearth a-ones may to made the scene of murder and rapine before the dawn!—Barnes and Harris having been killed—and now ex-sheriff King—one of Robesons noblest, truest, and most inoffensive sons—lies dangerously wounded by the hands of this terrible band. Is Gov. Holden, surrounded by all the panoply and pomp of power, helpless or deaf? Are his sheriffs and men at arms, "chips of the same block"—asleep or toothless? If not why let this carnage continue? To them Robeson must look in her affliction. They should be as salt to the body politic—but if, as salt, they have lost their savor—then where should they be cast?

This people want no soothing proclamations, but acts of stern, and real vigor.—The blood cries from the ground! Their homes and property are insecure!—Wadesboro Argus.

ACCIDENT AT BRINDLETOWN.—While two miners were at work digging for gold, in a pit near Brindletown, the earth caved in upon both of them, one of whom met with his death, and the other, being under the surface some six inches, was enabled to move the earth with his hands, having thrown them upwards instinctively when the loosened dirt began falling, and which attracted the notice of a woman near by, relieving him from his perilous position. The other man was dug out, but life was extinct.—Western Vindicator.

MOB OF THIEVES ON THE HUDSON RIVER RAILROAD.

POUGHKEEPSIE, February 3.—A bold attempt was made to rob the passengers on the morning Express train, which left New York on the Hudson River Railroad at 8 o'clock this morning. Soon after the train left the station, and while running slowly on the avenue, a mob of thieves entered the last car, one of them crying out, "Through passengers take the forward cars." All started to go forward when the thieves obstructed the doorway and began their work. One man, Mr. Brisbain, doing business at No. 42 Dey Street, New York city, was robbed of his watch. Another man was robbed of his watch, and an unsuccessful attempt was made to commit a third robbery. All the thieves made their escape.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN, or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from, whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 P. M.

Mrs. Surratt's remains were delivered quietly to her family to-day.

Hon E. Jeffords, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Mississippi, presented, to-day, an address to the Reconstruction Committee, on behalf of himself and others claiming to represent the influential part of the Republican party, who oppose the adoption of the Constitution voted upon in June last. The address is in the nature of a protest and is a discussion of the condition of affairs in that State. He proposes a plan of restoration as follows:

"1st. That Congress shall declare all the offices in the State vacant.

2nd It shall provide for the appointment of a Provisional Governor, with power to fill all the offices thus declared vacant, with power, also, to remove from office his own appointees.

3rd. To provide that the proposed Constitution shall be so modified or amended as to remove from it those features that are more proscriptive than is required by the reconstruction laws of Congress.

4th. To provide for an election at the time designated by the proposed Constitution for holding the annual election for the ratification of the Constitution as amended, and for the election of all State, county and municipal officers."

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8, P. M.

HOUSE.—Under the regular call the following was introduced:

Regulating the Fur trade and encouraging the building of steamships, relating to the rights of loyalists of Alabama, authorizing the President to appoint a Commission to revise the tariff, declaring reciprocity treaties, against the policy at this time, granting the right of way to the Memphis El-passo and Pacific Railroad, granting lands to the New Orleans and Selma Railroad and immigration association, and three bills regarding naturalization.

Eldridge asked the Select Committee to investigate the outrages by the Arkansas militia—Roots objected.

The copper tariff bill, as amended by the Senate, passed by a vote of 112 to 56. It now goes to the President.

The House went into a Committee and took a recess.

SENATE.—After the proceedings reported at noon, the Constitutional amendment was discussed all day and was only suspended to allow the vote on Edmunds' resolution regarding the Georgia Electoral vote, which was 44 to 11. This resolution provides that in declaring the vote the two results shall be announced, one counting and the other omitting the Georgia vote, thus leaving the Georgia question open.

The Senate then took a recess.

FROM GEORGIA—THE LEGISLATURE.

ATLANTA, Feb. 8 P M.

In the Senate a resolution pledging the members of both branches of the General Assembly to abide by the decision of the supreme Court, in regard to eligibility of negroes to hold office was defeated yeas 13, nays 19.

A second resolution requiring members of the General Assembly, officers and Clerks to answer under oath whether they ever held office prior to the war, under the United States, or during the war, under the Confederate Government, or served in the army or gave donations to the Confederacy, was defeated yeas 12, nays 20,

A motion to concur with the House resolution referring to the eligibility of negroes, was adopted Yeas 19, nays 12.

A resolution to rescind the action of the last session expelling colored members and reseating them at once, was postponed indefinitely, yeas 18 nays 19.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMPLETE. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? so let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at H. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
